

April 4, 2018

Artscoops auction to go live next week

An early still life painting by Safwan Dahoul, a seminal modernist painting by Georges Sabbagh and a brightly coloured rooster that displays the vivid imagination of Willy Aractingi are some of the highlights of the fourth live auction from Artscoops, a Beirut-based online platform.

The showcase of mostly secondary market pieces also features pieces from leading modernists such as Shafic Abboud and Paul Guiragossian as well as important contemporary artists such as Hazem Harb and Afshin Pirhashemi.

The auction will be held in Beirut, at 3Beirut in Downtown, on April 14 but the full catalogue and informatio abotu online bidding be found here: <https://artscoops.com/live-auction>

NEXT

Sotheby's Prize open for applications