THE SEASONAL BUY
the heat is on

Keeping it simple when it comes to garden furniture is no bad thing, and with Emu you can expect classic styles that will stand the test of time. Try its Maple Red colourway to bring a little terracotta-feel baked warmth to English gardens that might otherwise be lacking in heat. Star Relax sofa, £430; Star Relax lounge chairs, £254 each; coffee table, £192 (nunido.co.uk)

THE IN BRAND
astro
lighting

Illumination with a slightly left-field appeal is the draw at Astro Lighting. And on its Halftone wall light the fun lies in its translucent acrylic discs - each with an etched pattern - that allow the wall behind to remain visible when the light is on or off. It's a fine example of designer Riley Sanders' pursuit of 'purity and simplicity' with a contemporary edge. Halftone 400 light, £208.33; Halftone 600 light, £291.67 (astrolighting.com)

TREAT YOURSELF
class act

If cut crystal is your weakness, you'll likely be familiar with Reflections Copenhagen - the Danish doyenne of heavenly art deco-feel objects. Joining Matches Fashion's ever-expanding and covetable homeware line, we think you'll agree its Panama tray is an object of lust in the highest degree. Panama tray, £475 (matchesfashion.com)

THE FINISHING TOUCH
ciao bella

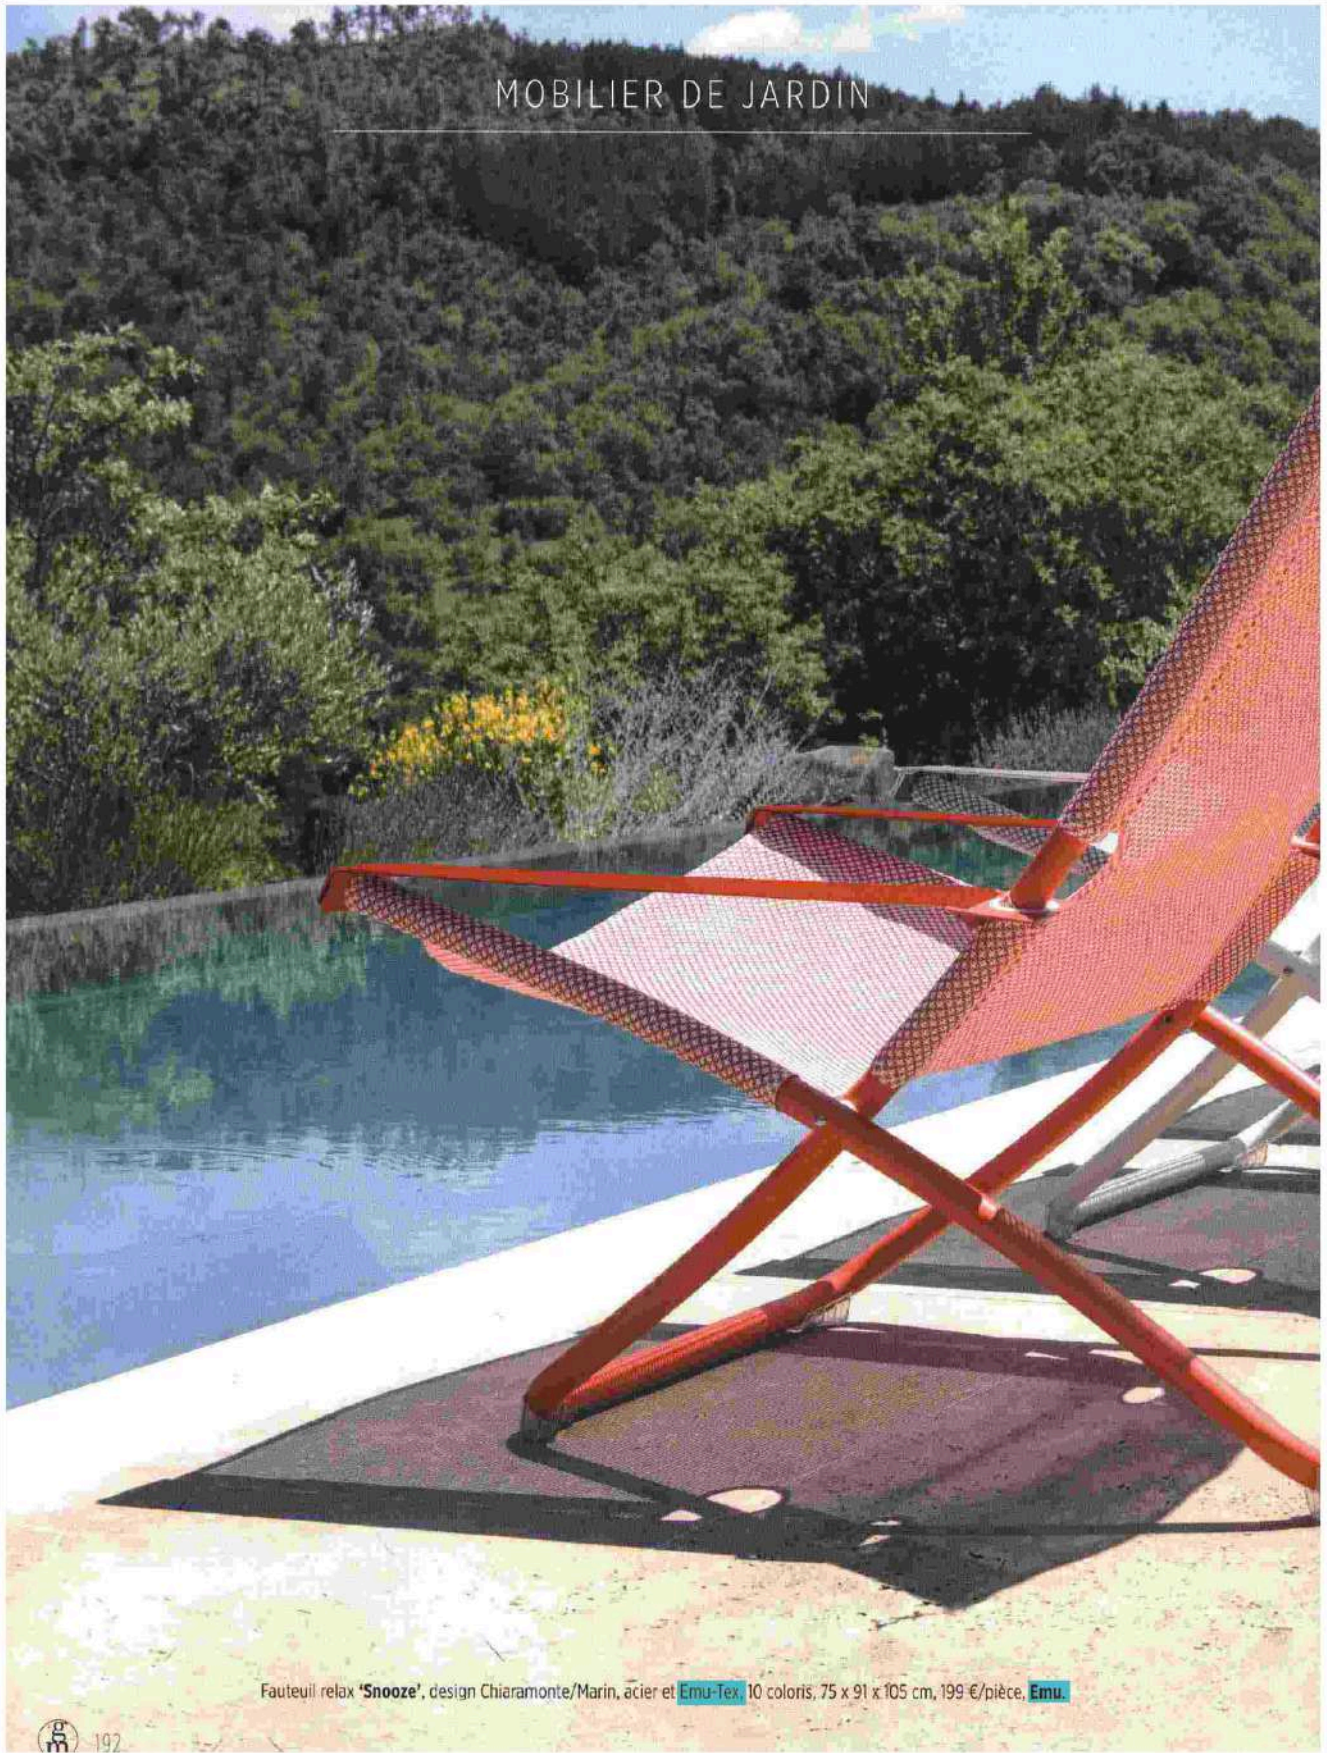

Not only do these prints from brand Papier and artist Ciao Chiaro immortalise some of life's most carefree moments (namely those knocking back aperitifs on holiday) in a series of playful illustrations, but each one comes framed and ready to hang in an effort to edge you one step closer to that gallery wall. Rosé, Spritz and Negroni frame prints, from £48 each (papier.com)
