

houses

home truths

YOU'VE DONE A 'FERRIS BUELLER' - HOW ARE YOU SPENDING YOUR DAY OFF?

I'd go somewhere fabulous for lunch on the wharf at Woolloomooloo Bay on Sydney Harbour. I'd do a bit of shopping and then maybe a cocktail at night in Potts Point.

FAVOURITE SMELL?

Oud Wood by Tom Ford. I love it.

ARE YOU AN AFICIONADO OF THE FAMOUS AUSSIE BARBECUE?

I haven't had one in years as I live in a high-rise building, but I do love them - especially if seafood is involved.

BEST GIG YOU'VE BEEN TO?

Michael Hutchence from INXS did an intimate, smaller venue tour in Sydney in the mid-90s. He was mesmerising.

DISCO OR DINNER PARTY?

Disco, Baby! All the way. I have a not-so-secret obsession with Studio 54.

YOUR STYLE IN THREE WORDS?

Clean. Expressive. Current.

the blueprint

FIRST FLOOR

SECOND FLOOR

THIRD FLOOR

TERRACE

'All the windows and terraces have ocean views. To offset all that blue, we gave each outdoor space pops of colour specific to that area,' says Greg.

Dock lounge chairs, Emu. Porcini side tables, Dedon. Cushions, custom-made; try Weaver Green for similar. Get silver travertine marble tiles from Mandarin Stone

Livingetc

coastal glam

Designer Greg Natale has created an atypical and totally gorgeous beach house – one that makes luxe living relaxed

PHOTOGRAPHY Anson Smart

STYLING Greg Natale

WORDS Kara O'Reilly

TRIBE NOIRMOUTIER

Left-hand page:
ceiling light by Michael Anastassiades for Flos. On the table:
carafe, House Doctor
and glazed terracotta bowl made by Bénédicte.

Above: vintage "Rio"
garden chair by Ems,
"Chilida" poster from
The Conran Shop and Muji plaid.