Cologne calling

More's CUT is available as a dining, coffee or side table. On the coffee table the top and legs taper from 3cm to 1cm.

Here are some of the highlights of what you would have seen at imm cologne if the pandemic had not seen it cancelled again.

The maximum resides in the minimum could be the maxim for COR's Noto. The minimum is immediately apparent: strictly rectangular surfaces, completely upholstered in fabric or leather, dead-straight outer seams – that's it. The maximum can be sensed on the softly sprung seat and in the gently swaying, almost free-floating S-line back. Designer Pauline Deltour died unexpectedly in September, aged 38, shortly after finishing the Noto collection.

Midgard introduced a white option to its Ayno Silk lighting collection

The shiny metallic surface of Kymo's Melting Lines is regularly interrupted by fine lines that create an almost technical pattern. And yet they look as if they have been artistically engraved. If you look at the surface from the other side, the lines merge almost magically with the background and are barely perceptible.

EDRA

'A'mare', a play on words that combines a love for design with the concept of solidifying water into precious objects, is the name given to Edra's new collection of furniture. Designed from polycarbonate sticks, this icicle-like range is almost too cool. Ice, ice, baby! A'mare table and chairs, price on request, Jacopo Foggini, Edra

EMU

It seems we can't get enough of WGSN's 2022 colour prediction for Atlantic Blue. Italian outdoor furniture specialist EMU has conjured the Cannolè range, which comes wrapped in that on-trend, distinctive tone. The Cannolè lounge chair, three-seater sofa and coffee tables will give any outdoor space a discerning dose of Italian flair. Cannolè three-seater sofa with daybed, €6,270 incl VAT, Anton Cristell and Emanuel Gargano, EMU

CIELO

Bringing sculpture into the bathroom, Andrea Parisio and Giuseppe Pezzano have created the Delfo washbasin, a wooden unit with a ceramic sink and countertop in a range of colours, including this blue from the Acque di Cielo tones.
